

Dillard Bio March 2017 Update

Rev. (Dr.) Scott Dillard

It is my pleasure to introduce our friend and frequent visiting minister, the Rev. Scott Dillard.

Rev. Dillard is a Professor of Rhetoric at GA College & State Univ. in Milledgeville. He has a Bachelor's in Speech Communication from Blackburn College, and an M.S. and PhD in Speech Communication (Performance Studies) from Southern Illinois University.

His areas of expertise and interest are performance studies, narrative, queer theory, gay spirituality and service-learning.

Rev. Dillard is also the former Dean of the Mountain School for Congregational Leadership.

Rev. Dillard is an ordained Interfaith Minister who speaks in Unitarian pulpits throughout the Southeast.

Scott and his partner, Chris Lamphere, live in Milledgeville, Georgia.

They have a daughter, Katrina, a grandson, Brandon, and a granddaughter, Lillian.

They also have one amazing dog, a Schnauzer named Belle.

The title of Dr. Dillard's sermon today is "_____."
